

Productivity Month: January 2019

Sponsorship Opportunities

Start the new year off with laser-focus on creating your best year ever at Hudson's Productivity Month. Productivity Month turns January into an action-packed month full of speakers, networking, lunch & learns, happy hours, one-on-one expert sessions and more.... Not to mention, every productivity expert will tell you that some "down time" is essential to increasing productivity... so we'll have some fun as well!

Hudson is currently seeking sponsors and partners to make January the most productive ever. Opportunities are listed below, or contact us to discuss your ideas to make Hudson the place to be in January!

Between keynote speakers, workshops, happy hours, lunch and learns and other networking events, we are expecting more than 2,000 of Milwaukee's motivated business community to come out for this year's Productivity Month.

Please complete and return no later than September 21, 2018 for consideration.
